

Crud flies tonight

The third Officers' Club Crud Tournament begins tonight in the Koa Lounge. Squadron teams will be competing on Friday nights through Feb. 25 with the goal of winning the first prize of $400 in Club Bucks. The championship finals are March 4.

Hike the Point

The Information, Tickets & Travel office hosts a 5.5 mile hike around Oahu's most western point (Ka'ena Point) Jan. 29. Although this is a fairly substantial hike, it is not difficult and you'll see things where there is no road like the Albatross Reserve and the light tower at the Point. Bring water, snacks and sunscreen. The $16 fee for adults ($10 for children), includes round trip transportation from Hickam and lunch. This is a great family outing.

Pet Clinic

The regular monthly walk-in clinic will be conducted Saturday at the Hickam Veterinary Clinic from 8 a.m. to noon. No appointment is necessary.

Services available include examinations, nail trimming, vaccinations, heartworm testing and microchip implanting. For more information, contact the clinic at 449-6481.

Kidsports registration continues

Registration for youth baseball and wrestling continues through Monday at Kidsports in building 1335-B. Participants, ages 4 to 17, must bring their birth certificate and current physical exam papers to register. Call Kidsports at 448-6611 for more details.

Skateboard park changes

The Hickam Skateboard Park has some new changes for the new year. Whether you are a skater, boarder, roller blader or scooterer, you'll pay just $1 per session. And if you're a regular, the new monthly pass of just $15 will be your best value.

The park is also operating new hours. It is open Wednesdays from 2 to 7 p.m., Thursdays and Fridays from 4 to 9 p.m., Saturdays from 2 to 7 p.m. and Sundays 1 to 6 p.m. To celebrate these changes, the park has initiated a January special. Bring a friend on Wednesdays, and one skates free. For more information, call 448-4422.

No job too big

See us for all your picture framing needs. We offer an excellent basic framing class which will instruct you on how to do-it-yourself. Contact the Arts & Crafts Center at 449-1568 for more information or drop by the shop located on Kuntz Avenue adjacent to the Hickam Bowling Center.

Childcare provider briefing

A pre-licensing briefing for prospective child care providers is held the first Thursday of each month from 5 to 6 p.m. at the family child care office located adjacent to the auto resale lot in building 2116. Applicants must be base residents, 18 years old, a high school graduate, able to read and write English and pass a national security check. Call the FCC at 449-18769 for more information. Please note that persons caring for other families' children for a total of 10 hours or more per week must be licensed.

Clubs plan super party

Club atmosphere and huge screens with screaming fans makes the annual Super Bowl parties at the clubs the place to be Feb. 6. The game will be televised live via satellite so you won't want to miss a minute. Game time is scheduled for about 1 p.m. Hawaii time. Both the officers' and enlisted clubs will provide free pupus during the game and there will be beverage specials along with door prizes. Come root for your favorite team.

Golf sale rescheduled

Due to circumstances beyond control, the Tent Sale scheduled for January at Mamala Bay Golf Course has been cancelled. It has been rescheduled for Feb. 19 from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. There will be bargains with savings from five to 20 percent on merchandise.

Lanai closed for renovation

Mongolian barbecue will be offered in the dining room from 5:30 to 8 p.m. on Thursdays. Due to limited seating, reservations are highly recommended and 'only' available to club members. Large parties cannot be accommodated during the renovation period. Call 448-4608, ext. 11 for reservations.

NOTE: Wright Bros. will not be open on Thursday nights as previously advertised. Wednesday Game Night switched to enlisted club during renovations.

Whale watching cruise

If you haven't seen the whales yet, this is your opportunity. Hickam ITT is hosting an exciting whale watching cruise on Saturday. Call 449-2230 for reservations. The $30 per person fee includes roundtrip transportation from the ITT Office.
